

Have your say!

We want to hear about your experiences during COVID-19

As we enter the winter months and into a new national lockdown, it is vitally important that we continue to understand how COVID-19 is impacting people experiencing homelessness. Groundswell are working with NHS England to understand the impact of COVID-19 on people who are homeless. This will help to inform how the NHS and other services respond to COVID-19 for people who are homeless.

We want to hear your experiences. Contact us on:
